How can I get information about my benefits and healthcare?

You can call the VA directly at (800) 827-1000 and speak to their service representatives. If you have been working with the VFW Department Service Officer, you should call him first. We can either address your concern on the phone, or set an appointment for you to come in. We're located in the Vet Center, at the address listed below. There is a reception desk; just ask for the VFW service officer.
