

Greenwood Installs Memorial Post V. F. W.

GREENWOOD, Del., May 23— (Special). — Greenwood Memorial Post, No. 7478, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was formally installed last night at the Greenwood High School.

Houston Wilson, attorney of Georgetown, principal speaker, spoke of the opportunity veterans have for working for peace.

Irving L. Jackson, commander Department of Delaware, V. F. W., and his staff were in charge. More than 150 veterans, relatives, and friends attended.

Ralph W. H. Moore is commander of the new post.

Other officers are:

Senior vice-commander, Bayard V. Coulter; junior vice-commander, Ebe T. Reynolds, Jr.; quartermaster, Dennis B. Christine; adjutant, Lester L. Craft; post advocate, Harry H. Mariner; chaplain, Charles F. Jones; surgeon, James F. Anthony; officer of the day, Richard D. Seely; patriotic instructor, Leroy Tull; historian, John Galle; service officer, Alfred S. Cahall; legislative officer, Robert B. Houston; public relations, William N. Tull; post employment, Jesse J. Sharp; guard, James F. Nichols; trustee, three years, Alva E. Lloyd; two years, John Reynolds; one year, William T. Newnam; color bearers, Leroy Peterman and Harlan F. Taylor.

On Sunday Sussex Memorial Post No. 7422, V. F. W., will be installed in the Millsboro High School at 2 o'clock. U. S. Senator James M. Tunnell will be principal speaker.