

Breakwater V.F.W. Post Formed by Lewes Vets

Breakwater Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the twenty-seventh post of the organization in Delaware, was organized Monday night at the Zwannendael Club in Lewes, and Homer E. Ingram was elected post commander.

Other officers are: Senior vice-commander, Walter B. Howarth; junior vice-commander, Edwin N. Magee; quartermaster, Charles T. Melson, Jr.; post advocate, William H. LeKites; chaplain, Harry F. Faust; surgeon, Walter J. Donovan, Jr., trustees, Henry P. Marshall, three years; Stanley J. Johnson, two years; George H. Lynch, one year.

The institution of the post will be public. The time and place will be announced. The organization meeting was conducted by Past Department Commander William T. Eliason, Barrett Simpler, adputant of Felton V. F. W. Post, and Extension Officer Robert D. Lingo, Jr.