

Third Negro Veterans Post to Be Instituted

The state's third Negro Veterans of Foreign Wars post will be instituted today at 2 p. m. in Labor Hall, 532 South Claymont Street, it was announced last night by Francis A. Sidowski, department adjutant.

The new post, Moss-Robertson, No. 6687, will begin with 26 members. Van J. Debrick is the first commander.

Other elected and appointed officers of the new post are: Senior vice commander, Samuel Mason, Jr., junior vice commander, Robert Savage; quartermaster, LeRoy Gaines; adjutant, Melvin P. Hopkins; post advocate, Ernest Barkley; chaplain, Joseph C. Kinslo; officer of the day, Amos O. Daniels; patriotic instructor, William Howell.

Trustees — Jerome Seymore, Roger Thomas, Isaac Mason and Nathaniel Jackson; guard, Leroy Jones; employment and service officer, Franklin Butler; public relations officer, Ernest Barkley; color bearers, Robert Hawkins and Horald W. Hollis; assist-and adjutant, Wilbur Freeman.